Bisons Headed to Johnson City for Atlantic Sun Tournament

After tying Mercer to clinch their spot in the A-Sun tournament, the Lipscomb Bisons will face the Bears yet again in the opening round of the 2011 tournament, hosted by ETSU in Johnson City, Tenn. For Lipscomb, this will be the fifth A-Sun Tournament trip in a row; the Bisons hope this is the first one that nets them an A-Sun Championship.

Last Year at the Atlantic Sun Tournament

The Bisons advanced to the semifinals for the second year in a row. Last season, the fourth-seeded Bisons torched departing A-Sun member Campbell, 5-1, in the quarterfinals. Miguel DaSilva scored two goals and assisted on two others, while Garret Pettis, Josh Kolbo and Angel Chairez added one apiece. Brent McGee made seven saves in net for the Bisons. The Bisons lost a heartbreaker in the semifinals to ETSU. McGee made eight saves on the way to All-Tournament honors, but ETSU's Theo Yang one-timed a David Geno pass past McGee with just seven seconds left in the second overtime to knock the Bisons from the tournament. McGee was joined on the All-Tournament team by DaSilva.

Opponent's Last Outings

The Bears used the week between the end of the A-Sun regular season and the beginning of the tournament to make a final non-conference appearance, visiting Durham, N.C. to face Duke.

Last Time Against Mercer

On Senior Night, the Bisons clinched a spot in the A-Sun Tournament, forcing a tie with the Bears for their 10th point in the conference standings. Senior Garret Pettis scored the Bisons lone goal, but it was an impressive milestone for him; the goal was Pettis' 33rd, moving him into first place all-time in Lipscomb Division I history for goals in a career.

The Bisons Against the A-Sun Tournament Field

The Bisons went 1-3-1 against the other schools that qualified for this season's A-Sun Tournament. Lipscomb opened the A-Sun portion of the schedule with a 2-1 victory against host and sixth-seeded ETSU, and closed it with a tie against fourth-seed Mercer. The Bisons fell to the top three seeds (Florida Gulf Coast, Stetson, Jacksonville) by a combined 7-3 score.

Historically in the Atlantic Sun Tournament

This is Lipscomb's fifth appearance in the A-Sun Tournament. In three of the Bisons first four trips to the tournament, they've reached the semifinals, but have never advanced to the finals. ETSU and Jacksonville have been the bane of the Bisons, with each of those schools ending Lipscomb's season twice (JU in 2007, '08, ETSU in 2009, '10.) Since Lipscomb joined the A-Sun in 2003, only three schools that remain in the conference have won the A-Sun tournament: Stetson (2005, 2009), Jacksonville (2008), and ETSU (2010). Florida Gulf Coast, which has won the last two A-Sun regular season titles, is in its first year of eligibility for the conference tournament.

Pettis, Barbar and Djabi Earn A-Sun Honors

Lipscomb placed three athletes on the postseason All-Conference teams, the Atlantic Sun announced Nov. 7. Pettis earned his second consecutive first team all-conference honor, marking the third time in his career he's been on the first or second team. Sophomore Kevin Barbar, an All-Freshman selection in 2010, was named to the second team for his work on the backline. Freshman Omar Djabi was named to the All-Freshman team this time around, making him the program's third defensive player (joining Barbar and Micah Johnson) to earn All-Freshman honors.

S. McGee Goal Not Enough in Lipscomb Loss at Stetson, Hatters Clinch Berth

Freshman Shea McGee scored his first career goal just before the end of the half, but two second-half tallies from Stetson's Jonathan Mendoza gave the Hatters a 3-1 victory. Stetson clinched its spot in the A-Sun tournament, while Lipscomb still sits in fourth with one game to play.

Pettis Ties School Marks in Bisons Beatdown of North Florida

Senior Garret Pettis tied the school record for single-game goals (four) and career goals scored (32) in a lopsided affair against North Florida the Bisons took by a 5-0 score. Pettis scored four times in the game's opening 30 minutes, and Isaac Pile added a second-half tally to round out Lipscomb's scoring. Brent McGee earned his season's second shut-out and Pettis nabbed his first A-Sun Player of the Week honor of 2011; it was his career's third.

After A-Sun Player of the Week Award, Pettis Earns Lipscomb's First National Team of the Week Honor

Pettis earned a very distinguished honor following his four goal game against North Florida. He was later named to the Soccer America National Team of the Week, the first time a Lipscomb athlete has earned a national weekly honor since the program moved to the Division I level.

Bisons Fall Behind Early, Lose to Jacksonville at Home

Nick Bibb scored in the 79th minute, but Jacksonville's Florian Scheck (43rd minute) and Stefan Durr (65th minute) gave the Dolphins a lead the Bisons couldn't overcome. The Dolphins imposed their physicality on Lipscomb, committing 14 fouls to the Bisons three but controlling tempo with their physical presence.

Bisons Continue Dominance of Belmont With 2-1 Victory

Deven Bahadoorsingh's 81st minute goal lifted Lipscomb past Belmont, keeping the "Battle of the Boulevard" trophy in Allen Arena after a 2-1 win. Nick Bibb scored in the first half, and Garret Pettis assisted on both goals. Pettis now has four goals and three assists in four career games against the Bruins.

Upset Special: Bisons Knock Off ETSU For First-Ever Win Against Ranked Foe

Nick Bibb and Garret Pettis did the scoring and Brent McGee made three saves to lead Lipscomb to a 2-1 victory against 22nd-ranked ETSU. The Bisons were helped by a handball in the box by ETSU's Blake Woodruff inside the 18-yard box, which earned him an ejection and Lipscomb a penalty kick that Pettis converted for the game-winning goal. The victory was the first for Lipscomb over a ranked foe in program history.

Pettis Scores Again to Give Lipscomb Tie With Bowling Green

Garret Pettis scored his third goal of the weekend in the game's 33rd minute, earning Lipscomb a tie and a second-place overall finish at the Hyatt Place Brentwood Invitational. Pettis attempted a career-high tying eight shots on the day, earning all-tournament honors along with Lipscomb's Joey Chiappetta and Kyle Erickson.

Behind Pettis' Two Goals, Lipscomb Earns Draw Against IPFW

Garret Pettis netted his season's first two goals in the first half, but IPFW staunchly refused to go away, with the end result being a 2-2 tie in Lipscomb's opening game of the Hyatt Place Brentwood Invitational. Senior Brent McGee made three saves for the Bisons. Pettis' first goal moved him past Ben Page for second-most points in Bison history.

Burkhardt's Blast Brings Home Season's First Win

A 38th-minute goal from Tyler Burkhardt and timely goalkeeping from Brent McGee would provide the difference for Lipscomb in their first victory of 2011, over VMI in the opening match of the Belmont Mafiaoszo Tournament. McGee and Omar Djabi would go on to earn all-tournament honors at Belmont.

High-Flying High Point Offense Downs Bison

Late Goal Dooms Lipscomb in Home Opener

An 86th-minute goal from Georgia State's Jordan Weise was the difference in the Lipscomb season-opener, with the Panthers downing the Bison, 1-0. Brent McGee made four stops, but the Bison offense couldn't get it going, mustering only two shots and one shot on goal during the match.

Pettis Named Preseason All-Conference, Bisons Picked Sixth

Senior Garret Pettis was Lipscomb's lone representative on the preseason All-Conference team, per a vote of the Atlantic Sun coaches. The Bisons were picked to finish sixth, with Florida Gulf Coast chosen to win the A-Sun.

Bisons on the Web

Lipscomb has expanded its online presence in 2011. In addition to a revamped LipscombSports.com webpage featuring video interviews, stats, game notes, streaming video and feature stories, the Lipscomb men's soccer team is on Facebook (Lipscomb University Men's Soccer Team) and Twitter (@LUMSoccer).
