LIPSCOMB HITS THE FIELD

Lady Bison Host Butler, Samford in Round Robin
 Lipscomb will take the field at Draper Diamond for regular season action when the Lady Bison host Butler and Samford in the Lady Bison Round Robin, Feb. 18-19. The event will feature three games, beginning at 11 a.m. both days. Lipscomb plays at 11 a.m. (Butler) and 1:15 p.m. (Samford), Saturday, and conclude the tournament with games at 1:15 p.m. (Butler) and 3:30 p.m. (Samford), Sunday.

Last Time Against This Weekend's Opponents
 Butler and Samford were both Lady Bison opponents in 2011. At the UAB

Magic City Classic, Lipscomb shut down Samford 10-0; Whitney Kiihnl threw a no-hitter and Vanessa Medina homered twice to lead the Lady Bison. Kiihnl threw a one-hitter against Butler, blanking the Bulldogs and leading Lipscomb to a 2-0 win. Mollie Mitchell and Rena' Cothron drove in runs for the Lady Bison.

Lipscomb Posts 1-3 Record at USA Mardi Gras
 After winning the season-opener against Jacksonville State, the Lady Bison lost three straight to end the Mardi Gras Invitational. SEC foes Mississippi State (3-1) and second-ranked Alabama (15-4) downed the Lady Bison in back-to-back games. Host South Alabama closed out the tournament for Lipscomb by handing the Lady Bison a 6-1 defeat.

LADY BISON SOFTBALL

Lady Bison Picked to Finish Second, Kiihnl and Mason Earn Preseason A-Sun Honors

Seniors Whitney Kiihnl and Caroline Mason were named to the preseason Atlantic Sun All-Conference team, and Lipscomb was picked to finish second in a vote of the conference coaches. Kiihnl was chosen as the Preseason Pitcher of the Year by a fan vote on the A-Sun's Facebook page.

Lady Bison Receiving Votes From ESPN.com/USA Softball Poll

Lipscomb received two votes in the ESPN.com/USA Softball preseason poll, released Jan. 24. It marks the second year in a row Lipscomb has earned votes in a preseason poll, and third season in a row Lipscomb will receive votes in any poll.

Kiihnl, Mason Named to College Sports Madness Preseason First Team

Seniors Whitney Kiihnl and Caroline Mason were named to the CollegeSportsMadness.com preseason All-Conference first-team in the websites first-ever softball vote. Both were all-conference selections in 2011 for the Lady Bison.

Lady Bison Softball Moves Forward in Faith

As a faith-based institution, Lipscomb's athletes are steeped in religious principles. That seems to ring especially true of the softball team, which has had four members accept Christ during this academic year. In December Ashley Anderson, Vanessa Medina and Kristen Sturdivant were baptized. Shelby Cunningham joined them in baptism in January.

Six Lady Bison Earn NFCA Scholar Honors

Two returners and four departed Lady Bison softball players were named to the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Scholar All-American team in the fall. Senior Whitney Kiihnl and junior Bree Thurman were named to the squad, along with departed Lipscomb athletes Courtney Billington, Miaca Bowman, Mackenzie Tucker and Lacy Walker. It's the second year in a row Lipscomb as a team was honored by the NFCA.

New Faces Will Make a Difference On the Field

roles during the 2012 campaign. Freshman Ashley Anderson, who redshirted the 2011 season, is expected to slide into the role of the No. 2 starter behind ace Whitney Kiihnl. Junior Kelsey Cartwright, who transferred from Auburn, will shore up an infield slot, while true freshman Brienne Welch will get the first chance at winning the starting leftfielder position. Coach Ryman will look to get freshman Gracey Aguirre's bat in the line-up as often as possible; the Houston, Texas native can play infield and occasionally take a turn as the designated player.

Lipscomb Signs Five for 2013

Lipscomb added five new softball players for the 2013 campaign in December. Outfielders Heather Montgomery, Brittany Elmore and Dee Baddley, pitcher Tanner Sanders and infielder Micaela Bell will wear the purple and gold beginning in 2013.
