Lady Bisons Host Florida Gulf Coast, Stetson to End Regular Season

With four of six tournament spots locked up and only one weekend remaining in the regular season, the Lipscomb Lady Bisons will need victories against both Florida Gulf Coast (Oct. 21, 7 p.m.) and Stetson (Oct. 23, 1 p.m.) to stay in the race. Friday night's game will be Senior Night, and fans are encouraged to come out and honor seniors Danielle Bethke, Meghan McGuire and Kirsten Heikkinen.

weekend, defeating USC Upstate (9-0) and ETSU (3-0) in the Eagles final regular-season home matches this season. The Eagles swept the weekly A-Sun awards, with Olivia Elias (three goals, three assists) and KC Correllus (lead defender in both shutouts) earning accolades. Stetson dropped a game to ETSU (6-3), before rebounding to defeat Upstate by the same score. Kait Jones got a hat trick against Upstate, while Katie O'Kennedy scored a goal in each game.

Florida Gulf Coast (4-1) in 2010. Erin Zerio made five saves against Stetson. Against Gulf Coast, Courtney Williams scored her first career goal and Zerio made six saves, but Olivia Elias scored twice to lead the Eagles attack.

North Florida Blasts Lady Bisons In Final Road Match

North Florida outshot Lipscomb 22-1 and four different Lady Ospreys scored goals to give North Florida the 4-0 victory. The loss was Lipscomb's final road game of the season; Lipscomb finished 0-8-0 on the road.

Lady Bisons Offense Goes Silent against Jacksonville

Erin Zerio made 10 saves, but Liz Fink and Emily Culbreth scored for Jacksonville and Lipscomb couldn't answer, falling 2-0 to end their two-game win streak. Jacksonville outshot Lipscomb 25-6 in this game.

Lipscomb Makes History with First-Ever Win Against Rival Belmont

Katie Wood headed in the game-winner (77') and Erin Zerio made seven saves in Lipscomb's first-ever win against archrival Belmont, 2-1. Kirsten Heikkinen scored in the eighth minute, the third match in a row the Lady Bisons netted the first goal. In addition to earning the program's first-ever victory against Belmont, the Lady Bisons also won consecutive A-Sun games for the

Lady Bisons Defeat Upstate Behind Goals From Bethke, McGuire

Danielle Bethke scored the game-winner in the (17') and assisted on Meghan McGuire's team-leading fifth goal in the (20') to earn Lipscomb their first Atlantic Sun victory since Oct. 23, 2009. Zerio made five saves for her first shutout of the campaign.

Lady Bisons Moving Up the All-Time Lists

Several Lady Bisons are moving up the career lists as we get further into the season. McGuire is tied for third all-time with eight career goals and is one point behind Hallie Proffitt for third all-time. Bethke overtook Proffitt for second all-time in shots with 86 and is five behind Melissa Chambers for most all-time. Erin Zerio passed Adrienne Childers for second-most saves all-time; she now has 229.

Goals Aplenty For Lady Bisons in 2011

After struggling to score in 2010 (netting just 10 goals in 18 games), the Lady Bisons have fared much better offensively this year. Through 13 games, the Lipscomb has 12 goals, led by senior Meghan McGuire's five.

Lipscomb never recovered, falling to 0-2 in A-Sun play after a 4-0 loss to the Owls. Freshman Allison Brown, in just her second career start, put up the fifth-best save number in program history for the Lady Bisons, making 13 saves in 17 chances.

McGuire Named A-Sun Player of the Week

After her two-goal performance led the Lipscomb Lady Bisons to an upset win over Southern Miss, Meghan McGuire was named Atlantic Sun Offensive Player of the Week, Monday. She is the first Lady Bison to earn a conference POW honor since Katie Shelton in 2008 and the first ever to be named Offensive Player of the Week.

Late Goals Doom Lipscomb at Miss. State
A last-minute goal took the game into overtime and the momentum away from Lipscomb, who fell to Miss. State 2-1 in the final game of the Bulldog Classic. Baylee Linnell scored her first career goal and Erin Zerio made a season-high nine saves. Zerio, sophomore Kelsey Reiman and senior Meghan McGuire earned all-tournament honors.

Big Upset: Lady Bisons Topple Southern Miss at Bulldog Classic
Behind two goals from senior Meghan McGuire, Lipscomb knocked off Southern Miss to open the Bulldog Classic, 3-1. Alex Wagner added her first career goal as a Lady Bison and Erin Zerio made four saves in the win. The win was Lipscomb's first-ever against a C-USA school.

Bisons Pick Up Season's First Victory Against Nicholls State
First-half goals from Courtney Williams (10') and Meghan McGuire (26') got Lipscomb out in front of Nicholls State early, and a late Kirsten Heikkinen tally provided insurance as the Lady Bison knocked off the visitors from Louisiana, 3-1, to claim the first victory of 2011.
